TYPHOID FEVER.

Prematurely Ends The Life of Orlin Moore.

Death Comes Saturday Morning and Burial Was Sunday Afternoon.

GENERAL SORROW PREVAILS MARION.

Orlin Moore, the second son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Moore, died Saturday morning shortly after nine o'clock, of typhoid fever. He was confined to his bed for just two weeks, but had really been sick for several days before he consented to give up. The disease was in a most virulent form and the young man's condition was critical almost from the time he was prostrated. Everything possible was done for his relief. All the science known to the medical profession was brought to bear, skilled and devoted nursing and attentions from friends and relatives were given without stint, but all proved unavailing before the grim Reaper, Death.

He was taken just at the period when he stood at the threshold of manhood, with the vista stretching before him bright with promises of a long life of happiness, and the successful achievement of those things which tend to the betterment, advancement and uplifting of mankind. Orlin was in his seventeenth year. He was a member of the class in the Marion High School which would have graduated next year and already his plans were made for continuing, to a well-rounded completion, his education in college. He was healthy and robust, of an active temperament, and possessed an intellect which was quick to receive impressions or instruction and was retentive to an unusual degree. He was never satisfied unless busy and he was constantly planning for further improvement and preparation to take a real man's place in the world's affairs. He was indeed one of nature's noblemen, for every instinct was refined and this had been intensified by a home training until he abhorred anything which approached the coarse, the vulgar or the wrong. He was as modest and retiring as a girl, with a heart and life pure and undefiled, a deep respect and consideration for everyone with whom he was associated, and a love of home, of parents, of brothers and relatives that was all-absorbing and beautiful in the extreme. To him his parents were indeed his counselors, to whom he went for solace in times of trouble or pain and at whose feet he joyously laid as tribute the victories he had won in his boyish world or in school. His three brothers, Virgil, Homer and Neville, were his boon companions and he was as deeply interested in their affairs and as jealously guarded them as he did his own. He was brave in spirit, loyal and devoted in his friendship and devout in the profession of christianity which he made at the age of thirteen years, once which time he had been a faithful and consistent member of the Methodist church. He realized for several days the seriousness of his condition but at no time did he show by word or sign that he feared in the least to go down into the valley and show of Death, but instead his only regret seemed to be the premature termination of all the bright hopes that were held for him, and the suffering of home and family ties.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the residence in East Marion, and never in our history was there a larger or more sincerely sympathetic gathering of relatives and friends to mingle their tears with those of the bereaved parents and brothers. The services were conducted by the Rev. J. B. Adams of the Methodist church and the songs were sung by Mesdames Fannie Walker, J. H. Orme, Miss Nellie Sutherland, Messrs. Geo. M. Crider and C. S. Nunn.

In his prayer Bro. Adams touchingly asked for Divine aid and comfort for the sorrowing ones. His talk was eloquent and a beautiful tribute to the stainless character and life of the deceased. The text was John 13-7—"What I do thou knowest not now, but thou shalt know hereafter." The preacher stated that, looking at it from the human viewpoint, we could not understand why it was that a promising life like Orlin Moore's should be cut short as it was, but that the ways of God are inscrutable and full of wisdom and that what now seems to be a dark and unexplainable mystery would be made light and the wisdom of it shown when the troubles and trials and tribulations of this vale of tears were over and his loved ones had joined him in Heaven to which happy estate his death was merely the forerunner of his going.

The remains were laid to rest in the new cemetery, the funeral cortege being one of the longest that ever passed through the streets of Marion. An especially touching feature of the procession was the part taken by the members of the 1910 High School class and the Sunday School class, to which the young man belonged. Headed by Prof. J. P. King, principal of the Marion Graded School, the boys and girls of next year's graduating class marched by two from the residence to the cemetery. Immediately behind them, and in the same formation, came the young men of the Sunday School class led by the teacher, H. D. Pollard. These intimates of the deceased maintained a position alongside the hearse throughout the entire route, thus forming an escort of honor prompted by the purest motives—those of sincere love, respect and sorrow.

Even to the last details the sad rites were performed by intimate friends, the pall bearers being Messrs. W. B. Yandell, H. K. Woods, J. H. Orme, Geo. M. Crider, J. C. Bourlaed and T. H. Cochran, the hearse being driven by J. M. Freeman and the grave being rounded up by Senator P. S. Maxwell.

The floral offerings were numerous and handsome and when placed in position covered the mound under which the young man sleeps. The brief services at the Cemetery were impressive and just before these were begun a last invitation was given for the friends to look upon the features of the dead boy who had the appearance of having dropped into a quiet and peaceful sleep. After the burial was over scores of sympathizing friends offered their condolence to the surviving members of the stricken family.

As Bro. Adams said in his talk, it is hard to give up a character like Orlin Moore, but when we think of the happiness he has shed by his sunny nature, the incentive he has given to his companions and those younger than himself to emulate his example and lead a blameless life, and the comfort, help and pride he was to his parents we should rather give thanks that he was allowed to remain with us as long as he was for the constant blessing derived from association with him and the glorious memory that is left us for the future.

CHICASHAS SOT-OUT.

By Marion in a Tilly Contested Battle at Maxill Park.

Cooperrider Struck at Twenty men And Allowed at One Hit.

COMPLETE WALK-OUT FOR MARION.

Saturday afternoon's game was a complete walk-out for Marion, the Indians being shut out with but one hit and no run. Only four men reached first base and one of these got as far as this, but died there. Cooperrider was in great form, and the red-skins simply had not the least chance against him. His pitching and the field work behind him would have won against almost any team. Twenty men fanned, Perryman put one out by catching a foul fly, five were caught at first base, and Guess retired the other by holding on to a line five. One single to center, two flies on balls, and Marion's lone error put four men on bases, but whenever they were there, Cooperrider was simply invincible to the batter. In the second inning, two bases on balls put men on first and second and a passed ball advanced them to second and third; nobody was out, and it began to look as if the Indians would score, but Cooperrider fanned the next three men, and the last hope of the Chicashas was perished.

Jones, the first pitcher put up by the Indians, proved good. Marion could do nothing with him until the fifth, when Cooperrider opened up with Marion's first hit, a base on balls to Cannan put him on second, Dixon sacrificed him to third, and he came home on Rochester's infield hit. Cannan scored a moment later on a passed ball, making more than enough to win. Hayes then relieved Jones and Marion made no more in that inning. Atkins went in to pitch in the sixth, and did well. Marion had three on bases and nobody out in the sixth, but Atkins struck out three. Marion scored one in the seventh on an error, a passed ball and two hits.

This is Cooperrider's fourth game pitched for Marion, and fourth victory, the last three being shut-outs; eight hits have been made off him in the four games, an average of two to the game. During the same games, Marion has made thirty-five hits, and only eight errors. Such pitching with that kind of batting and support from an amateur team, will win nearly every time. Marion is certainly putting up a stiff game, with Kraft and Cooperrider pitching, and the boys backing them up in the way they are doing. Besides being an extra good pitcher, Kraft plays a star game at first, and his base-running is a revelation to some of our friends; his continual talking during an inning is a great bracer for the team, as well as being entertaining for the crowd. Those teams who based their hopes of defeating Marion on the fact that Paul Gossage is out of the game are certainly being disappointed. We may lose some games yet, but the teams that do defeat the boys are going to have to play major league ball to do it.

MARION LOSES TWO GAMES TO PRINCETON.

Princeton won both games of ball from Marion this week. Tuesday the score was 6 to 3, and yesterday our home team was shut out, while Princeton scored 3. So Princeton is on a game on us with even shut outs. We are very proud of our boys notwithstanding they were defeated in both of these hotly contested games. Both were good games and that both are fast teams there is no doubt and with the best of feeling we will say: Let each team have its picked battery home boys for the other positions and see who has the best team. If it be true that Princeton played but four or five of her regular team there is little for her to exult over.

GREAT EXAGGERATION.

Of Typhoid Fever in Marion AS Shown By Following Article.

Dr. T. A. Frazer Gives Advice to The Citizens of The Town.

HOW TO PREVENT THIS DISEASE.

Various reports have been circulated in regard to typhoid fever in Marion, and Dame Rumor has reported anywhere from twenty-five to one hundred cases of this disease in our midst. These reports have been circulated far and wide, and have done our community great injustice and injury. People of our own town have been principally responsible for these false reports. They take up mere rumor and report it as facts, when they could easily investigate this matter, as any of our physicians would give them the facts in regard to this disease.

It has also been reported that epidemics of other diseases have been present in the community. It is true we have had a great deal of sickness. At least 50 per cent of this sickness should have been prevented. I have made a careful investigation of the situation, consulted every physician in our city, and find that we have had a total of twelve cases of typhoid fever in and around town this year. It is, however, a reproach to any community to have this disease, as it originates in filth and is easily prevented. If every person would work for their own good and the good of the community, no person ever has typhoid fever unless they get the germs into the alimentary canal, and these germs must come from some previous case, where the discharges have not been properly disinfected.

The mouth is the port of entrance for typhoid germs and they enter either with our food or drink. When our water supply becomes contaminated with these filthy little "bugs," we drink them, and therefore, become infected with the disease. If all drinking water was boiled it would obviate this course of danger. Our food may become contaminated by contact with the common house fly, which is a scavenger, and the most filthy place he can find is his "haven of rest." Then he comes to our kitchens and dining rooms with his feet and legs teeming with the various disease germs, and deposits them on our food. This source of danger can only be overcome by proper screening. Many other diseases originate from filth, and, if we would keep our premises scrupulously clean, be careful what you eat and drink, we could prevent at least 50 per cent of the usual summer sickness, save much suffering and many valuable lives. Hon. J. F. Gordon.

Elsewhere in this issue is found the notice which the people with one accord, will be glad to see, we refer to Judge Gordon's announcement for re-election. He has served this the fourth judicial district with honor and distinction, and in few cases have his decisions been reversed. Our people have learned to love and respect him for his honesty and care in the administration of the law. That he will be renominated is a foregone conclusion and we believe the people will endorse him and re-elect him by a large vote in November.

Hon. John L. Grayot.

Elsewhere in these columns will be found the announcement of the Hon. John L. Grayot as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for re-election as Commonwealth's Attorney in the Fourth judicial district. This gives pleasure to the writer and will to the thousands of Democratic hosts who have known him since boyhood and who have honored him heretofore with their votes and their confidence and who will testify at the polls that he has been loyal and true to his trusts in all the walks of life. Mr. Grayot was born and reared at Smithland and makes his home there. He attended school here and ever since those happy days has held as warm place in the hearts of Marion and Crittenden county as his home county and people could possibly entertain for him.

Mr. Grayot is one of most conscientious and painstaking men in official life. He is alert for every point against a criminal, but his warm heart and generous nature would revolt at any injustice done an innocent man. That he is terror to evil doers, is one of the strongest reasons why the people are going to endorse him and keep him where he is.

Annual Home Coming Day.

A perfect day, and a fine audience assembled at the Cumberland Presbyterian church last Sunday to enjoy the annual Rally Day of this church. On account of the former postponement from the third Sunday in June to the third Sunday in July, many out-of-town people could not attend. Among those from abroad were noticed, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Williams, of Carrsville, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lamb and Miss Jewel, of Clay, Miss Mendoza Deboe, of Blackford and Hon. J. S. Durham, of Nebo. The choir rendered some good music with fine enthusiasm; and altogether the services were not only deeply spiritual and impressive, but pronounced by all very enjoyable. Mr. Biddle preached again on Monday and Tuesday nights.

Miss Mary Cameron, our popular telegraph operator, who also keeps all of the popular weekly and monthly magazines and story papers in her office received the following message late yesterday evening. "Send at once 'A Bashful Man.'"

H. Hughes, of the country, was in Marion yesterday.

F. M. Doom, of Salem, a prominent photographer, was in Marion yesterday.

B. B. Terry, of Sheridan, was in Marion yesterday.

Chas. Boyd and Albert Shoemaker, of Sheridan, were in Marion yesterday and bought themselves a new buggy each, of T. H. Cochran & Co.

W. C. Reymers, proprietor of the Airdome, is putting up a high-class, moral entertainment. His entertainments each night are being liberally patronized.

Sam Givens, a former citizen of Uniontown, now a prominent traveling salesman out of Paducah, was in Marion Monday and Tuesday.

OBITUARY.

John N. Roberts was born November 7, 1843, fell asleep trusting in Jesus June 6, 1908.

In the early 70's he professed faith in Christ and was baptised by Elder Paul Walker. In 1889, under the preaching of Rev. J. J. Smith he received the blessing of full salvation. He was filled with peace, love and joy, rejoicing in God as only the true christian can.

From that time he said he had no fears in death. His affliction lasted through many months, but he submitted himself to God and bore testimony to the last. He frequently spoke of his departure, and on the last sad night, calmly, as if preparing for a journey, he gave instructions concerning everything. He was conscious to the last, knew he was dying, said his time had come and he was glad to go. After telling us all good bye, giving us a parting message, telling us not to grieve, but rejoice, because all his sufferings would be over, he breathed his last in full hope of eternal life.

Marion People Give Credit Where Credit is Due.

People of Marion who suffer with sick kidneys and bad backs want a kidney remedy that can be depended upon. The best is Doan's Kidney Pills, a medicine for the kidneys only, made from pure roots and herbs, and the only one that is backed by cures in Marion. Here's Marion testimony:

Mrs. Mary Alexander, Marion, Ky., says: "I was afflicted with kidney trouble for three or four years. Sharp twinges seized me in my back when I stooped or lifted and I was unable to rest well on account of the constant backache. I was easily tired, often felt nervous and languid and was annoyed by headaches and dizzy spells. I was also troubled by a blurring of my eyesight and I noticed that the kidney secretions contained a sediment when allowed to stand. I finally procured Doan's Kidney Pills at Haynes & Taylor's drug store and am glad to say that they gave me relief. I have no hesitation in recommending Doan's Kidney Pills to other kidney sufferers."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Mrs. Bettie Babb, the wife of A. D. Babb, died of flux at her home in this city Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock, after an illness of one week. Mrs. Babb was a kind, good woman, who was known and loved for her many virtues and her death was a great shock to her family and those intimately acquainted with her. The deceased was fifty-four years old and is survived by the husband and four children, three sons and one daughter, all grown. The remains were carried to the family burying ground in Crittenden county for interment Sunday afternoon accompanied by numerous sorrowing friends from this place and the crowd at the funeral was one of the largest ever seen in this section at a burial. Funeral services were conducted at the grave by Revs. Bumpass and Little.—Providence Enterprise.

Best Stomach Remedy Free

It is an old saying that if the stomach is sound the whole body is safe, because so much depends upon the proper working of the stomach. Many persons find themselves with a disorder of the stomach which produces dyspepsia or a peculiar state of biliousness.

If you suffer from both stomach trouble and constipation you are on the way to a very serious disease. From just such conditions come appendicitis, rheumatism, skin diseases and similar disorders, because the waste matter that should have been expelled from the system through the bowels has found its way into the blood and vitiated it. What is needed at this point is not simply a violent cathartic tablet or salt, which usually does more harm than good, but a gentle laxative tonic like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which people have been using for these ailments for nearly a quarter of a century. It cured J. C. Lanham, of Warrensburg, Mo., of stomach trouble of long standing, also William Voll, of 903 Ellis-st., Louisville, Ky., who had the trouble for fifteen years.

However, if you have stomach trouble you want to know from personal experience what Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin will do for you. If so, send your name to the doctor and a free trial bottle will be sent you. You are urged to send for the free bottle, as the results from it will be the best recommendation of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Then you will do as over two million people did last year—go to your druggist and buy a regular bottle at 50 cents or $1, according to the size you prefer. We could mention hundreds and hundreds of families who are never without it. You can never tell when some member of the family will need a laxative, and then no time should be lost taking Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

If there is anything about your ailment that you don't understand, or if you want any medical advice, write to the doctor, and he will answer you fully. There is no charge for this service. The address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 500 Caldwell bldg., Monticello, Ill.

Education.

About the sixth century, B. C., the commonwealth of Athens, the leading y of the Ionians, elected Solon, chief ruler and bestowed upon him unlimited power and authority. He gave to Athens a constitution of laws, political, religious, social and educational. These were very different from those of Lycurgus, king of Sparta.

Especially different was the system of education provided for. It differed in many, and therefore it differed in the methods of instruction, sport and attendance.

But the maining of education today does not mean to prepare men for war but for civil life. It not only means to develop the mind, but the heart and willpower as well.

Kentucky has about thirty-seven in education a great part of our people live in the country, and the question of education which the country boy and girl should receive is one of high importance to the commonwealth. And it is a problem most likely to be overlooked. When educators assemble, it is the college man and the city teacher who are at the front. The needs of the city schools and the proper method for their management are more or less prominent before the public. The country school and the country school teacher, out of sight, and forgotten. Now let us consider what are the needs of those country boys and girls. They have a good physical start in their country out-of-door life, but he comes the pull, where shall they get the ideals of life, the principles of conduct, the inspiration and motives of achievement that shall fit them to make the most of themselves and their families? By the fact, at they are far from town, they must be sheltered from many temptations and evils of city life. But, they are in special need of the awakening voice and the guiding hand that shall put them in step with the progress of the world and make them share in the best elements of civilization.

Could we but see every country home beautified in its surroundings, its humble hearth, graced by a shelf of books. It would take us to make a man fully competent to manage the affairs of school.

The people of Kentucky have been very slow in learning, some times they will say, I have educated my children, but they never think anything about their neighborhood children, but remember what is good for your children will be good for all. Every man should take an interest in school affairs, not only in his own home, but in every home. When the whole country gets aroused and gets right down to business, puts their shoulders to the wheel, then we are going to pull together and raise Kentucky above the thirty-seventh mark in education. Every one of us has got some had opportunities to deal with. I have talked with some who you couldn't interest on the subject, but they had much rather talk to you about hunting, a good pack of hounds and had their be able to tell you when a hound was running on a cold trail, than to tell you he knew how to spell and could write a business letter. But the time is here, I am glad to say, when we are going to have better schools, better opportunities to acquire an education. So now boys and girls, its up to you, its yours if you want it. So now be ready, everyone of you, to partake with this fall's school begins, set your high and work downward every day and remember that you are citizens and are laboring to build up not only yourself but your community.

A SQUARE DEAL AND A SQUARE MEAL

Here's a square deal for the people who can't eat a square meal without after pain and distress.

Go to HAYNES & TAYLOR to-day and get a 50 cent box of Mi-o-na tablets: the great prescription for indigestion and stomach troubles.

Take one, or if your suffering is intense, two tablets with or after meals and at the end of ten days if you can't eat a square meal without distress go to HAYNES & TAYLOR and get your money back.

That's where the square deal comes in. But Mi-o-na is really a stomach upbuilder of great merit: every day the makers receive more than a dozen letters from grateful people which state that after losing hope Mi-o-na cured. The quick and positive action of Mi-o-na on the stomach in case of gas, war, sour stomach and heartburn is worth a lot of money to any sufferer. E. D. Howe, Gardner, Mass., says: "I suffered from severe pains in my stomach. I tried different remedies without relief; after using two boxes of Mi-o-na I found myself completely cured."

Mi-o-na is sold by leading druggists.

MI-ONA Cures Indigestion

It relieves stomach misery, sour stomach, belching, and cures all stomach disease or money back. Large box of tablets 50 cents. Druggists in all towns.

Better Not Get Dyspepsia

If you can help it. Kodol prevents Dyspepsia, effectually helping Nature to Relieve Indigestion. But don't trifle with Indigestion.

A great many people who have trifled with indigestion, have been sorry for it—when nervous or chronic dyspepsia resulted, and they have not been able to cure it. Use Kodol and prevent having Dyspepsia.

Everyone is subject to indigestion. Stomach derangement follows stomach abuse, just as naturally and just as surely as a sound and healthy stomach results upon the taking of Kodol.

When you experience sourness of stomach, belching of gas and nauseating fluid, bloated sensation, gnawing pain in the pit of the stomach, heart burn (so-called), diarrhoea, headache, dullness or chronic tired feeling—you need Kodol. And then the quicker you take Kodol—the better. Eat what you want, let Kodol digest it.

Ordinary pepsin "dyspepsia tablets," physics, etc., are not likely to be of much benefit to you, in digestive ailments. Pepsin is only a partial digester—and physics do not digest at all.

Kodol is a perfect digester. If you could see Kodol digesting a particle of food, of all kinds, like glass test-tubes in our laboratory, you would know this just as well as we do. Nature and Kodol will cure a sick stomach—but in order to be cured, the stomach must be what Kodol does—rest the stomach, while the stomach gets well. Just as simple as A, B, C.

Our Guarantee

Go to your druggist today and a dollar bottle. Then after you have had the entire contents of the bottle if it does not cure you, return the bottle to the druggist and he will refund your money with question or delay. We will then pay the druggist for the bottle. Don't believe all druggists know that our guarantee is good. This offer applies to the large size only and to but one in a family. Twelve bottles contain 24 times as much as the fifty cent bottle.

Kodol is prepared at the laboratories of E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago.

Night Riders Send Threatening Letters to Hopkins Co Growers.

The Madisonville Journal says: "In the absence of a joke column in the pages of the Journal it is necessary to place the following intelligent missive under a foreign caption. It is printed to show on what a low plane some one places Kentucky manhood, even more for that reason than to fill space."

This brilliant bit of intelligence was addressed from Princeton, Ky., but mailed on an L. & N. train. Here is the ludicrous epistle:

Camp of Night Riders, Princeton, Ky.—We want this distinctively understood, that every man that lays out of the Association in Hopkins county may depend on getting his back skinned and fire stuck to his bare. We want to say to any man that intends to buy tobacco in Hopkins county that we have got plenty of hemp rope and bullets and you can depend on having it used on you. Hopkins county has been a scab and scabwag county long enough and if the farmers there won't work for their own interest, we will, and when we do come we intend to scatter scab hair. Willson's soldiers went last as long as a snow ball in August. We mean every word. "Night Riders 800 Strong"

Itch! Itch! Itch!

Scratch! Scratch! Scratch! Eczema is maddening and the more you scratch the more you itch. Your skin is on fire—your lips and mouth are dry with the agony of it—your whole body is worn out with the constant suffering—stop scratching—you can't put out the fire with your finger nails. Little's Liquid Sulphur stops itching instantly and because of its wonderful penetrating qualities comes in direct contact with and kills the germ that causes the disease. It quickly relieves any skin disease on earth—Eczema, Psoriasis, Herpes, Tetter, Shingles, Acne, Ringworm, Barber's Itch, Itch, Poison Oak, Ivy Poison, Erysipelas—all diseases of the skin or scalp whether caused by heredity, contagion, weather, chafing or impure blood.

It is well known what a perfect antiseptic and germicide sulphur is—all city health departments fumigate houses where contagious disease has been, with sulphur. Little's Liquid Sulphur is a secret preparation holding the sulphur in solution so that it gets right into the pores, enters the blood and goes direct to the seat of the irritation or disease. Look for the trade-mark—picture of red devil. Sample bottle sent post paid to any address for 10c. Rhams-Sulphur Co. St. Louis-Mo.

Night In Waterless Camp.

Naivesha British East Africa, July 14.—The members of the Roosevelt party are active in their search for game in the vicinity of Lake Navaesha. Monday and Tuesday of this week the party were on the march from dawn until after nightfall. At the end of the first day the pool that had been the objective point was found to have dried up and the party consequently had to spend the night in a waterless camp.

Three Brothers Run a Train.

What is probably the most remarkable train crew in the United States is that of the Chicago express over the Philadelphia and Reading and Lehigh Valley railroads. The conductor of the train is H. M. Saltman, both the engineer and fireman are his brothers. If there is another case where three brothers pose the major portion of a train crew it is not on record. The conductor is the oldest of thirteen children, twelve of whom are living. He climbed to his present post via the brakeman route, while his brothers choose the locomotive end.—Cadiz Record.

He Forgot The Printer.

They counted him an honest man!

Through Summer, Fall and Winter. He paid the butcher every week—

But he clean forgot the printer. He settled with the bank each month;

The balance made him caper, But he owed at least two years or more

For the little village paper.

He went to church and Sunday-school, To Thursday night prayer meeting

For each "reform" that came his way

He had a hearty greeting.

For every "high" and "holy" cause

You'd always find him praying, And he took the paper "to help it along," But he never thought of paying.

He had a "pull" in politics, The candidates all sought him,

But when he did ne'er balance up

With the revenue it brought him. And so, from year to year, this,

This sepulcher all whitened

Went on his way dispensing grace

To sinful man benighted.

And when at last Time's ruthless scythe Cut down the withered weed,

His heirs prepared a fairy tale

For witless man to read, His soul releasee from earthly bonds

Now rests where there's no winter, And they know above, or down below,

That he never paid the printer.
